

Inspired by lack of windows in the apartment market, My Window offers a new way to view the outdoors from the comfort of any room on any floor during any time of day.

Now let's see all the My Window possibilities.

With My Window, you can brighten up any room with an amazing view of the city, a rainy night, or the latest sports event.

Want to charge extra for this amazing ammenity?

No problem. My Window offers various opportunities to over charge.

Control what your tenants see throughout the day.

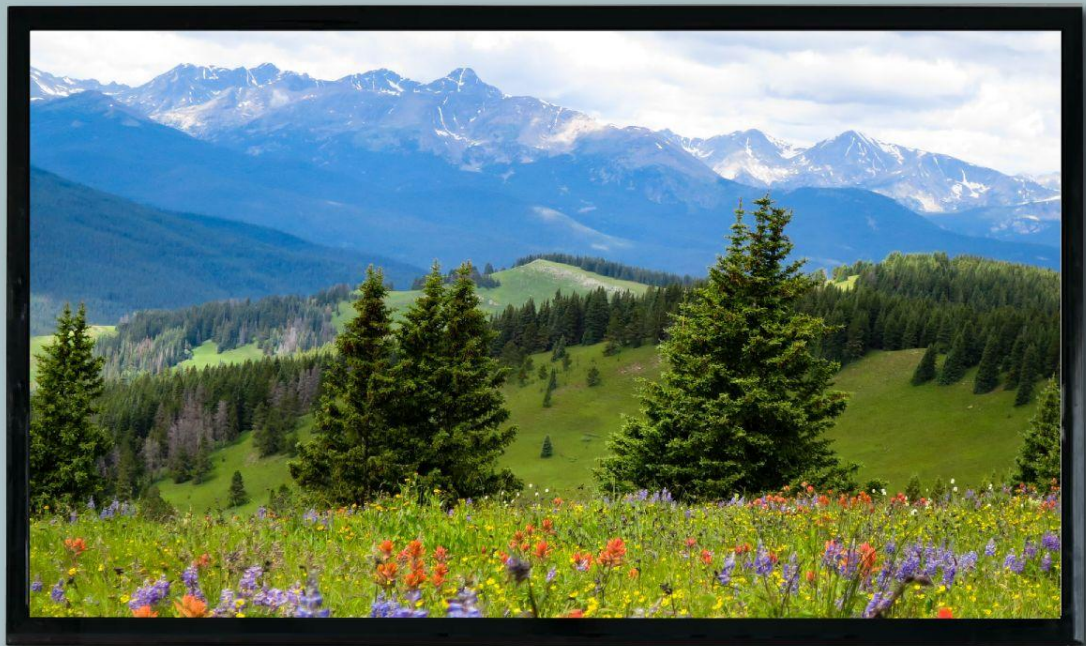

Paywalls, ad space, and more are just a few ways your tenants could unlock their own My Window.

Tennets behind on fees?

A living room with a light blue sofa, a floor lamp with a red and white flower-shaped shade, and a wall-mounted TV. The TV screen shows a blurred city night scene with a white text box in the center.
